4. ORDER SOUGHT

â~‘ I seek an order for extension of the Emergency Detention for a further period (not exceeding 11 days)

I have conducted an examination of the subject person under section 14 of the Mental Health Act 2015 and the subject person continues to meet the criteria for involuntary detention as follows:

4a. Does the subject person require immediate treatment, care of support?

â~‘ Yes â-j No

If yes, why?

If not met under mental health act, Mr Nesmith is a 43-year-old male brought by PACER following sending emails to various organisations including foreign embassies (Swiss and Iranian embassies, NASA, National Security Hotline, and various other agencies). He also sent a long, rambling, thought disordered email to HHNHM messages. Presently says subject to PTO.

Recent diagnosis of serious mental illness, characterised by perceptual disturbance/delusions/pervasive mood disorder and sustained irrational behaviour indicative of same.

Recent comments made by himself suggest he is being trafficked, that he has had relationships with luminous Creatures crossed lines teach Guard, and his birth date and place adds up to Bright Morning Star and he is constructing a rainbow bridge to heaven.

4b. Has the subject person refused to receive that treatment, care, or support?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If yes, how?

Mr Nesmith has refused treatment during current admission as well as in the community. Mr Nesmith believes that his experiences are gross not pathology.

4c. Is detention necessary for the subject person's health or safety, social or financial wellbeing, or for the protection of someone else or the public?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If yes, why?

If not met under mental health act, Mr Nesmith is at risk of misadventure, risk of reputational damage, risk of further deterioration in mental and physical health.

4d. Can adequate treatment, care or support be provided in a less restrictive environment?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If no, why?

- Wendell Charles Nesmith suffers from a serious mental illness characterised by perceptual disturbance/delusions/pervasive mood disorder and sustained irrational behaviour indicative of same.
 - It is in our view that the mental illness is a continuing condition and there is no other less restrictive care that [text continues...]
